Quarterly Updates

What is it?

It's your Risk Register — holding the information and technology related risks comprised of harmonized laws, regulations, industry standards and other related mandates.

What can you use it for?

- Risk Assessment
- Compliance Readiness
- Policy and Standard Development/Refresh

Why is it better?

Simple	Easy to navigate our IT risk management framework
Clear	Transparency through verbatim sources
Faster Coverage	Sources, sooner through quarterly update and releases
Optimized	Thousands of mandates reduced 10X
Consistency	Developed by a team of lawyers, cybersecurity and IT professionals
Integrated	Integrates risk with compliance concepts
Tailored	Can easily be tailored through consulting to include client specific policies

How It Works

Getting Started

Edgile works with each client to tailor the library for its unique needs. Getting started is easier than you may think and typically takes less than one week. Annual subscriptions with automatic quarterly updates include two days of onsite consultation to help you implement your new iGRC Content Service.

A brief demo is all you need to make the switch; you will see how iGRC Content refines how companies can spend less money and get better results from their GRC programs. Contact Edgile today to schedule this demonstration.

SETUP

1. Select from the list of available sources and add new sources

2. We compile a library for you based on your unique selection

3. Workshop to tailor the inherent and residual risk

4. Client or engagement to baseline the controls

ONGOING

1. Edgile provides you an updated list

2. You select incremental sources or request a full recompiling of the library

3. Client confirms with Edgile new sources requested

New Regulations, New Threats Require New Tools

Edgile Technology Diagnostics enables companies to more easily identify unknown security issues and demonstrate their proactive security posture.

Our diagnostics enable CISOs to answer the toughest questions:
• Is our technology secure?
• Are we compliant with cybersecurity regulations?
• Where are our largest technology gaps?
• How do we compare against other firms?
